(c) If an interest payment date falls on a non-business day, payment will be made on the succeeding business day without payment of additional interest.

14. Method of payments

(a) All payments in respect of this Bond must be made in Euro and to Euro denominated bank accounts for which the Accountant General has been supplied with a valid International Bank Account Number (IBAN).

(b) The settlement of all types of payments linked to this Bond, including:

(i) semi-annual interest payments;

(ii) refunds of unallocated monies;

- (iii) early repayment of principal; and
- (iv) redemption of the Bond on its maturity date, shall be made by credit transfer through the Single Euro Payments Area (SEPA) scheme in the IBAN indicated in the respective application form or the latest bank account number (IBAN) held in the register.

(c) The Treasury does not charge for sending payments, however the beneficiary's bank could charge a fee to receive the funds when these exceed certain amounts. The Accountant General shall not be responsible for any bank charges arising in connection with any payment in respect of this Bond.

15. Tax

The interest earned from the 62+ Malta Government Savings Bond - Issue 2020 is taxed in accordance with the investment income provisions of the Income Tax Act (Cap. 123 of the Laws of Malta). As stated in the information summary, resident individual holders can opt to receive the interest payment gross and declare the investment income earned in their income tax returns or net of tax (withholding tax).

Every year, the Accountant General will render (i) an account to the Maltese Commissioner for Revenue of all amounts of interest paid and tax deducted as well as the identity of the recipient and (ii) will inform the Maltese Commissioner for Revenue of all interest paid gross and of the identity of all such recipients.

Any tax election made by the resident Bondholder at the time of subscription may be subsequently changed by giving notice in writing to the Registrar. Such election or revocation will be effective within the time limit set out in the Income Tax Act.

16. Early redemptions and cancellation

(a) Bondholders may withdraw the whole amount invested in the 62+ Malta Government Savings Bond - Issue 2020 before the maturity date of the Bond subject to the payment of a penalty for early redemption in terms of paragraph 17. No application for a partial withdrawal from individual's holding will be entertained during the life of the Bond.

(b) Applications for early redemptions shall be made on the prescribed form which can be downloaded from the Treasury's website and sent to the Treasury Department. The Accountant General will normally initiate the electronic transfer of funds within 30 days. Typically, the early redemptions are payable on the 5th day of the month.

(c) Bondholders' requests for early redemptions are irrevocable and cannot be withdrawn after they are submitted to and received by the Accountant General.

(d) The Bonds which are redeemed before the maturity date of the Bond as specified in this paragraph will be cancelled.

17. Calculation of accrued interest on early redemption

Where the holder withdraws the principal before the first interest payment date, the holder shall be entitled to interest from the issue date of the Bond up to the last day which immediately precedes the repayment date.

Where a holder withdraws the principal before the maturity date but after the first interest payment date, the holder shall be entitled to interest from the last interest payment date up to the last day which immediately precedes the early repayment date.

In the case of inheritance occurring during the term of the Bond, upon the notification of the death of a Bondholder, the account is put on hold. The principal together with (i) withheld interest payments and (ii) accrued interest from the last interest payment date up to the last day which immediately precedes the repayment date of the Bond will be paid to the beneficiaries of the deceased Bondholder through the transmission Causa Mortis procedure. The Bond held by the deceased is not transferable onto the beneficiaries of the deceased Bondholder.

On payment of principal to the beneficiaries of the deceased bondholder through the transmission causa mortis procedure, the bond will be cancelled.

18. Penalty for early redemption

(a) Except where paragraph (c) below applies, a penalty equivalent to three (3) months gross interest on the principal withdrawn, at the interest rate the Bond is earning, i.e. 3% per annum, will be deducted from the repayment. The formula for calculation and application of the penalty is as follows:

$$\text{Penalty Amount} = \frac{P \times R \times 3}{12}$$

Where: P is the principal amount withdrawn; and R the annual interest rate of 3% the Bond is earning.

By way of example, a Bondholder who invested the maximum permissible amount of €10,000 who opts for early redemption of the Bond will incur a penalty of €75.00.

(b) If there is insufficient interest due in the current interest period to meet the early redemption charge, an adjustment to the principal being repaid will be made to meet the penalty. If a Bondholder cashes in the Bond within the first three months of its commencement, the Bondholder will get back less than originally invested.

(c) No penalty will be charged where the Bond is repaid before maturity to the beneficiaries of the deceased Bondholder through the causa mortis procedure.

19. Redemption of the 62+ Malta Government Savings Bond - Issue 2020

The 62+ Malta Government Savings Bond Issue - 2020 shall be redeemed at par on 21st July 2025.

20. Cut-off date for amendments in the register

The register shall be closed for a period of ten (10) days immediately preceding each date upon which the semi-annual interest on the bond falls due and no amendments such as, change of (i) address, (ii) tax option and (iii) bank accounts details, shall be made during that period.

21. Security

The principal and the interest payments thereon of the 62+ Malta Government Savings Bond – Issue 2020 will be a charge on the consolidated fund and other public funds of the Government of Malta.

22. Registration advice and other statements

On registration, the 62+ Malta Government Savings Bond - Issue 2020 Bondholders will receive a registration advice from the Malta Stock Exchange (MSE) through normal post or through the MSE's internal electronic system managed by the MSE.
